

Mapping out summer fun

•Luke Rufenacht `18
Sports Editor

•Drake Crabbs `19
Staff Writer

With summer quickly approaching, it is time to start planning some fun activities to keep the break interesting. Branch County and the surrounding areas offer numerous options for summer fun. Whether it be going to watch a movie with friends or enjoying a nice day at the lake, there are always things to do.

Color Run
Date: June 10
Registration: 7:30 - 8:30 a.m. To register get a packet from Jim Crabbs.
Start: 9 a.m.
Location: Jennings Elementary
Cost: $30
 "It is something to help JPO raise money, as well as high school and middle school student councils," Crabbs said.

The Udder Side
Address: 121 W Chicago St. Jonesville, MI 49250
Hours: 11a.m. - 8p.m., Mon. - Sat. 12p.m. - 8p.m., Sun.
Phone: (517) 849-9666
 Menu can be found at: udder-side.com
 "I like that [The Udder Side] gives you a bunch of ice cream for just a little bit of money," Lillie Cox `19 said.

Capri Drive-in
Address: 119 W. Chicago Rd, Coldwater, MI 49036
Phone: (517) 278-5628
Admission: $9 for adults. Tuesdays are $25 carload nights. Cash Only
 Box office opens at 7:30p.m. Movies start at sundown.
 "I like the drive-in because it's outdoors and easier to hang out with friends," Montana Hinds `18 said.

Chain of Lakes
 The south chain of lakes, which includes Coldwater and Marble Lake is 16 miles long.
Activities: Fishing, kayaking, swimming, and tubing
Places to go: Tip-Up Island in Quincy and the Quincy-Marble Lake Campground at 301 Lake Blvd in Coldwater.
 "I like tubing and swimming with friends and hanging out at Corn Island," Emma Barve `20 said.

Reading Summer Festival
Location: Reading, MI
When: Aug. 3-Aug. 6
Activities: Parade, pony pulls, truck pulls, softball, live music, street dance, soapbox derby.
 "We have something to offer for everyone: garage sales to truck pulls, music, dancing in the streets, softball, and soapbox derby," Reading Chamber of Commerce president James Galloway said.

For all your upholstery needs...

Sheree's Upholstery

Residential • Commercial • Complete line of upholstery
 Furniture and antiques • Boat and vehicle seating
517-639-8412
 925 Jonesville Rd. Quincy, MI 49082

Kick off summer the right way by receiving $1 off any size frozen treat!

Receive $1 off any size frozen treat when you bring this ad in with your student ID.
 Expires July 31, 2017

577 East Chicago by Dunhams
 Mon-Sat. 11am-9pm. Sun. 12-8pm
 Follow us on Twitter @ThePatioYUM