

SAGINAW VALLEY

Location: University Center
(Six miles from Saginaw)
Yearly Tuition: $16,849
Enrollment: 2,666 students
Highlights:

- 17 varsity sports teams
- 70 majors and minors
- Average class size of 24
- Student to faculty ratio of 18:1
- 4-year, small university

"I liked the dorms; [they were] new and nice. Everyone had a kitchen and bathroom. Class sizes are small, allowing one-on-one work with professors."
~Alumna Shanda Drumm '11

Location: East Lansing
Yearly Tuition: $23,136
Enrollment: Around 50,000 students.
Highlights:

- City environment
- Large, 4-year university
- High-quality sports programs
- Large, natural campus

"I chose MSU because of the environment. Going from 400 kids in my high school to 50,000 students here was a big change, but I definitely made the right choice."
~Student Nick Marshall '15

MICHIGAN STATE

COURTESY PHOTO

SMITTEN WITH CHOICES

Review local college options

Madde Horn '17
Staff Writer

Luke Rufenacht '18
Staff Writer

Do not wait until the last minute to choose what college suits you. From large four year universities to small two or four year colleges; from private to public, learn about the different school choices available in the state, what they bring to the table and why QHS students chose to go there.

OLIVET COLLEGE

Location: Olivet
Yearly Tuition: $33,176
Enrollment: About 1,150 students
Highlights:

- Small town atmosphere.
- Offers 28 bachelor degree programs
- Twelve mens' sports and eleven womens' sports
- 4-year, private college
- Reasonable option for QHS athletes

"I went to Olivet because it gave me the opportunity to play sports unlike other bigger schools."
~Student Jacob Jodway '15

KELLOGG COMMUNITY

Location: Battle Creek
Yearly Tuition: $99.50/ credit hour for Battle Creek residents
Enrollment: About 12,700 students
Highlights:

- Has a baseball, basketball, softball, and volleyball team
- Community college
- Applicants must be high school graduates and be at least 18 years old

"In my situation, I'm going to do required courses [at KCC] and save money before transferring to a larger university."
~Student Carter Silva '14

USED WITH PERMISSION OF SVSU